

YOU'RE INVITED TO JOIN

GRANDMOTHERS AGAINST GUN VIOLENCE

AS WE HONOR THE LEGACY OF

REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR

Keeping the Dream Alive

NORTHWEST AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM

APRIL 5 | 6:00-8:30PM

2300 S. MASSACHUSETTS ST.

SEATTLE, WA 98144

50 years and one day after his assassination

Grandmothers Against Gun Violence (GAGV) invites you to an evening honoring the legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr and his dream of peace, nonviolence, and justice. This inspirational, educational and entertaining evening will include special presentations on how we can advance MLK's goals and principles. We will share highlights of how Grandmothers Against Gun Violence and other community notables are Keeping the Dream Alive.

Featuring Special Guests:

Carmen Best, Interim Seattle Police Chief
Central Area Senior Sliders
Professor David Domke, UW Communications Dept.
Ola Jackson, Rainier Beach High School
Pramila Jayapal, US Representative (Video Message)
Northwest Tap Connection
Seattle Cares Mentoring Movement
Patrinell Wright, Total Experience Choir

Enjoy wine, hors d'oeuvres, exhibits and entertainment!

Seating is limited. Please RSVP for this FREE event:

sesimonsays@comcast.net

For more information visit www.grandmothersagainstgunviolence.org

GRANDMOTHER'S AGAINST GUN VIOLENCE

4111 E. Madison St. #153

Seattle, WA 98112

